The image shows a floor plan for Suite 220. The suite's perimeter is defined by a red line, with a cyan line following a similar path but shifted slightly towards the top and right. A magenta line follows the perimeter of a smaller area on the right side of the suite. A green line is located at the bottom of the suite, near a wall. The plan is overlaid on a grid of dashed lines, with circles at the intersections. The text 'SUITE 220' is centered in the main area of the suite.
